Shumail Munib's Islamic Rhymes—A Pleasant Contribution to Children's Learning.

Shumaila Munib, who writes under the pen name Shumail Munib. She belongs to Faisalabad, the city of Pakistan. She completed her M Phil in Urdu literature. Now she has dedicated herself to the study and promotion of Muslim sacred literature. Shumail Munib's latest research, a compilation of Islamic nursery rhymes, is an important attempt to shape the minds of the children with faith, wisdom and moral integrity. Islamic rhymes are a powerful means of preserving religious values for the new generation bringing them closer to the Islamic way of life. These rhymes not only describe the greatness of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ but also remind us that the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ are a source of guidance for all ages. Her book Islamic Rhymes is not only a collection of poems but also introduces the biographies of the poets. It is a gateway to inculcate love for Allah and His Messenger ﷺ in the hearts of children. Through captivating rhymes she wants to promote spiritual awareness, strengthen cultural identity and enhance cognitive and linguistic development in Muslim children. These rhymes become a child's first lessons in kindness, gratitude and respect which leave a lasting impression on their character. As an educator, I deeply appreciate her remarkable work that will inspire generations to grow up with faith, trust and a deep connection to their Islamic heritage. This book includes a thoughtful selection of poems that highlight the love for Allah and the Prophet ﷺ making it an valuable resource for parents and teachers. Shumail Munib's hard work and dedication is evident in this researchable compilation. I am confident that Islamic Rhymes for Children will encourage moral and spiritual awareness, promote Islamic values and become a treasured addition to children's literature. I pray that this book will prove to be a means of salvation for Shumail in the hereafter and moreover bring blessings to the children of the Muslim Ummah to fill their hearts with the love of the Prophet ﷺ Ameen.

Preface

Islamic rhymes are a very effective means of making children aware of the universal love of Allah and His Beloved Messenger ﷺ through simple and pleasant words and instilling the spirit of their praise because poetry has a unique ability to convey love, faith, spirituality and cultural values to easily explain them to others. Therefore, in educational institutions, the style of education and training through rhymes is also adopted where children get education and training from other rhymes Islamic rhymes are not only an entertainment activity for children but as these are also a source to enlighten their minds. These rhymes give children an insight into the heritage of ancestors and religious beliefs with Islamic values.

For children in this mortal world full of distractions, I wanted to create something meaningful that would capture the hearts of children and connect them to the true spirit of faith. I think Islamic rhymes are a magical way to connect children with Islam with deep messages, increase the belief in monotheism and the belief in Prophethood and increase the awareness of the members of Islam, manners, way of prayer, manners of living, beauty of faith, spirit of mercy, sacrifice, gratitude, kindness, and moral values in children.

This book will increase the light of faith in the hearts of our children and make them compassionate, kind and loyal to others. In this book, biographies of poets have been described briefly along with their poetic work for the academic interest of the readers.

I hope this book will help to enhance the beauty of Islam and will become an important part of your child's life journey. It is my sincere wish that such books should be included in the curriculum of schools so that the spirit of Islam can be instilled in children at an early age. This work is not just a book but an invitation to build faith and character through art and poetry.

I pray that may Allah accept this small effort of mine and make it a source of good for those who read it. Ameen,

Shumail Munib

Introduction of books With Rhymes

1-The Age of innocence Islamic poems for children By Khadeijah Stephens

The "Age of Innocence" by "Khadeijah Stephens" is a lovely compilation of Islamic poetry geared for young people. This book's poetry inspires young minds to love the Prophet (SAW) and honor fundamental Islamic principles like kindness, faith and humility.

This book's poetry also encourage the children's contemplation on the wonders of Allah's creation, the value of morality and the pleasures of a straight forward and honest religion of Islam.

She wrote these Rhymes to invoke the children to show their love for the Prophet (PBUH).

i-Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)

When truth was lost and hearts were frozen
from You, Allah, came a Prophet, chosen.
Blessed Prophet Muhammad obedient to You taught us the things we ought to do.
He taught us for certain that You are One that You have neither a daughter, nor son.
He taught us to be good to our mother and father and that Paradise lies under the feet of our mother.

I love you my Prophet and sing your praise
and follow your Sunnah, Prophetic ways.
One day I will come to visit your tomb,
In shah Allah, that day will be very soon!

ii-Thank You Allah

Thank You Allah for all that You give,
some times I'm naughty, but please forgive.
Please teach me to be good every day
and let my heart be ready, willing to pray.
Thank You Allah for Your Prophet who I love
please raise him in rank in Paradise above.
(Did you know that we will all be given ranks in Paradise. If we have been very good Allah will give us a high rank. Prophet Muhammad, praise and peace be upon him, will have the best and highest rank in Paradise.)

iii-In Medina, City of Grace

He told me that this noble Prophet had been given the Book so true that teaches us what's right and wrong
and tells us what to do.
The Book is named "Al Koran"
the Book Allah protects,
the Book so fine and full of truth
pure, without defect.
Then I imagined he told me
it was time to go,
I felt my heart was going to break
I loved the Prophet so.

The angel looked at me with pity and smiled a gentle smile
so we drifted down the hillside
and stood a little while.
I learned something I will never forget that Allah is the only One,
that He is Eternal and does not need a son.
I learned He has neither a beginning nor an end
that He is Self-Sufficient
and His Religion is Islam.
O how I wish I'd been a child in those years long past then I wouldn't have to imagine what's deep inside my heart.
One day when I am older
I hope that I will go to Mecca and Medina
for I love our Prophet

(so wouldn't it be wonderful to walk where once he had been to gaze upon the mountains and remember what he had seen. To glorify Allah at Ka'ba so noble and most fair to thank him for our Prophet and for His loving care.)

iv-Isra And Miraj

All was quiet, the night was still when the Prophet was awakened by Angel Jibril.
Winged Burack trembled by Ka'ba in wait
to carry the Prophet to Jerusalem's gate.
That night Burack had been ordered to carry but one

the best of humanity, Abdullah's son.
He knew the importance of his blessed mission
for he carried no one except by Allah's permission.
Over deserts and valleys Burack raced,
each stride was as far as his sight could reach.
Over mountain tops with his legs raised so high they passed smoothly over without effort or sigh!
At Jerusalem's Mosque prophets waited patiently to greet our Prophet whose perfume was delicately sweet.
Then as Jibril took his hand and they arose
above the sky to heavenly abodes.
Through veils of light in a gossamer haze
they visited more prophets as they passed on their way,
as the heavens rejoiced in such ecstasy
at the predestined meeting near the Lote Tree.

(This journey is one of our Prophet's most important miracles. In those days, it used to take several months to journey to and from Jerusalem by camel, but he traveled from Mecca to Jerusalem and returned in just one night-added to which was the extra special journey through the seven heavens! As for Burack, he is a very special animal from Paradise. He is white and looks similar to a horse.)

v-The Holy Man

A holy man came knocking,
knocking at a door
but the people looked down on him
thinking he was poor.
True his clothes were old,
tattered, faded, torn,
true his socks had holes in them
and his shoes were worn.
He asked them in the Name of Allah to help him in this way

but the door was closed upon him
and he was turned away.
His way was that of the Prophet who warned and brought good news of the Path so very straight,
a path that will never loose.
Reminding that this present life
soon fades and is but a delusion but shaytan promotes and decorates it and tricks with his confusion.
Yet the life of the world to come
is eternal, it never ends
and is either full of happiness
or punishment for shaytan's friends.
His way called back to the Prophet's where the heart finds rest
where when a good deed is done
it never goes unblessed.
Its reward is more than doubled,
multiplied much more
for doing even the smallest good deed great treasures lie in store.
Yet when we fall into sin
we are punished just for one unless we ask for forgiveness
then it counts as none.
That night, alone yet humbly
he prayed unto his Lord
for poverty mattered not to him
his Lord he adored.

And as he lay down to sleep
sweet angels cradled him
then took away his soul so gently
he did not feel a thing.
Then to the house the angels went to make another call
to take away the soul of the one,
who had closed the door.
His rank and wealth were of no account
they were but a trial for him,
he had forgotten his wealth belonged to Allah and could free him from his sin,
for he had become arrogant
delighting in rank and wealth neglecting his precious soul by promoting the ego of his self.
Sad indeed was his condition
as his family laid him to rest,
spending upon his impoverished soul
flowers and whatever they thought best.
But around the holy man's grave there grew flowers with perfume sweet whilst birds flew singing happily his contented soul to greet.
Happiness indeed was his,
now his trial was done
for he'd been shown his place in Paradise
the place that he had won.
For him no more tiredness
just sweet, perfected rest
a reward for obeying Allah and His Messenger

the reward that's richly blessed.

vi-The Year Of The Elephant

The sun beat down on the desert parched as over it Abra's army marched.
Its aim to destroy Ka'ba with the elephant's might
and kill many Meccans in a fierce fight!
As the elephant approached Ka'ba most fair
it stopped in defiance and just stood there.
Somehow, even the poor dumb elephant knew the destruction of Ka'ba is strictly taboo.
Beaten so hard because it refused with bars of iron, severely abused,
but nothing would make the elephant march
even though its beating was terribly harsh.
Abdul Muttalib, the noble, the wise
said to the Koraysh in haste - "Go and hide, Allah will protect Ka'ba this day
go now to the hills not far away!"
Suddenly, the sky was filled with birds
the Koraysh stared in amazement - lost for words!
Allah had sent birds with stones
to pelt the army and break their bones.
Abra, the wicked leader of them all was hit hard by the stones that fell in the squall,
his death didn't come straight away
in pain he lingered for many a day.
Allah had saved Ka'ba in a miraculous way
and no one forgot the events of that day.
The Meccans returned to their homes once more in wonderment of the miracle they saw.

That was the Year of the Elephant,

a year in which there was another event!

A babe was born, the last Prophet to be

Muhammad (PBUH) his name, sent for you and me!

Q : (Did you know that Abdul Muttalib was the grandfather of Prophet Muhammad, praise and peace be upon him, and that he looked after him when his mother, Lady Aminah died?)

Ans : (Grand Father of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

2-Wharnsby-Ali ,Dawud's Rhyming Books For Children

Wharnsby-Ali is a Canadian singer-songwriter, poet, novelist and educator. He is well-known for his spiritual and Islamic-themed music. Wharnsby-Ali, a significant character in contemporary Islamic music. He was born in 1972 in Kitchener, Ontario and converted to Islam in his twenties. He is renowned for his profoundly spiritual lyrics, which frequently center on themes of faith, simplicity and social justice. His creative talents cover a variety of genres, including nasheed (Islamic vocal music).

Apart from his musical career, Wharnsby-Ali is also the author of multiple books, most of which are aimed at younger readers.

His writings demonstrate his dedication to promoting Islamic principles and fostering a profound love of spirituality in both listeners and readers.

His books of Islamic poetry such as "A Whisper of Peace", "A Picnic of Poems in Allah", and "Sing, Children of the World," combine conventional acoustic sounds with themes of moral and spiritual development.

He started performing, writing music and writing poems while he was just a teenager. Since then, he has developed into a spokesperson for people in the twenty-first century who are spiritually and socially aware.

He was born in Canada and now lives in Nashville, Tennessee, USA, where he continues to write poems and works as an audio producer for Muslim Network Television. The Royal Islamic Strategic Studies Center (Jordan) has permanently included Dawud in its annual list of 500 Influential Muslims for his contributions to entertainment and the arts.

i-A picnic of poems in Allah's green garden

By Wharnsby-Ali, Dawud

Dawud's book, "A Picnic of Poems", is yet another poetic masterwork that vividly and imaginatively expresses the core of every child's hopes, desires and concerns. With lovely pictures, it's a specimen for the children. The publication details of this book are published by Mark fiels Leicestershire: The Islamic Foundation Collection, pages 48, 2012.

A Picnic of Poem.

I've packed some poems for lunch,
some rhymes for us to chew,
a simple, Sippy, soup of songs,
to stir and sing and stew.
Like all good meals to munch,
it would be very rude
not to begin with bismillah,
to bless our poetry food.

ii-A Whisper of Peace

By Wharnsby-Ali, Dawud

Wharnsby-Ali's creative and emotional poem "A Whisper of Peace", showcases his distinctive style of fusing spirituality, simplicity and social conscience. The book encourages readers to embrace inner harmony and serenity in a world through its poetry.

The theme of this book is derived from Islamic teachings and encourage virtues like compassion, mindfulness and thankfulness. Wharnsby-Ali encourages readers of all ages to pursue a life of kindness and contemplation, and she does so by using soft, genuine words. A "Whisper of Peace" is more than just a personal meditation on faith. Wharnsby-Ali's music and poetry frequently address worldwide topics. Instead, it conveys a message of peace and compassion for individuals from all walks of life.

A collection of nine poems by Wharnsby, fully illustrated to keep the young and the young at heart entertained for hours. These poems cover various topics, including saying Bismillah, celebrating Eid, Rasulullah (PBUH), and many more. This hardcover book comes with an audio CD, allowing readers to sing along to these joyful and educational rhymes. Published by "The Islamic Foundation".

i-Bismillah

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim, alhamdulillah Rabbil 'alamin.
In the morning when we wake, bismillah, bismillah,
with every step we take, bismillah, bismillah,
with every word we say, bismillah, bismillah,

and every game we play, bismillah, bismillah.
Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim, alhamdulillahir Rabbil 'alamin.
With everything we do, bismillah, bismillah,
with everything that's new, bismillah, bismillah,
with every place we go, bismillah, bismillah,
and every friend we know, bismillah, bismillah.
Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim, alhamdulillahir Rabbil 'alamin.
Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim, alhamdulillahir Rabbil 'alamin.
With every song we sing, bismillah, bismillah,
from every mountain, peace will ring, bismillah, bismillah.
Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim, alhamdulillahir Rabbil 'alamin.

ii- A whisper of peace

Moving through the land
Allah will surely run to us if we hold out our hands
A word of hope will call to every woman and man
A light until the end of time
This is our Islam

A whisper of peace
Moving through the land
Allah will surely run to us if we hold out our hands
A word of hope will call to every woman and man
A light until the end of time
This is our Islam

A whisper of peace
Moving through the land
Allah will surely run to us but do we understand?
A word of hope will call to every woman and man
A light until the end of time
This is our Islam

A whisper of peace
Moving through the land
Allah will surely run to us if we hold out our hands
A word of hope will call to every woman and man
A light until the end of time
Or is this just a waste of rhyme?
Are we running out of time?
Is this our Islam.

iii-Color of Islam

His poetry of contemporary and music for Muslim kids worldwide blends religious ideas with modern issues and includes the global values of faith, truth and peace. Colors of Islam are another one of Wharnsby's educational books that will teach all young readers about the fundamentals of Islam. This charming compilation, created by a well-known singer and Muslim convert Dawud Wharnsby, touches on several significant Islamic themes, including the religion's message of peace, love for the Prophet Muhammad, God's proximity, and the appreciation and care for the world's beauty. This collection, which is full of upbeat lyrics and trustworthy concepts, will educate and inspire kids of all religions, especially Islam.

i-The Story of Ibrahim

Father, oh Father, why do you do it,
why do you whittle all day?
Why do you carve those statues of wood,
and fashion those idols out of clay?

Father, oh Father, why do you do it,
why do you bow down and pray?
To all of those empty gods you have made,
when there's such a far better way?
There is only one God,
La ilaha illallah.
Lord of both the earth and sky,
Who knows all the answers
to where, what and why.
There is only one God,
La ilaha illallah.

ii-Colours of Islam

Allah made us all a different shade and colour.
Nations and tribes recognise one another.
'Cause every single person is your sister and brother.
So many different colours of Islam.
Fill the world with colour, paint it everywhere you go.
Paint everything you see, and tell everyone you know.
Qur'an will be your paint, and your brush will be Iman,
so fill the world with colour, every colour of Islam.

iii-Hear Me Beat My Drum

The rhythm of your breathing is so soft,
as you lay up in your beds so sweetly dreaming.
Through your windows, smells of bread and sounds of drumming
drift and waft,
to fill your nose and ear,
and tell you that the dawn is near.
Wrapped up like baked pastries in your sheets,

I know you're tucked away so warm and cozy.
There's tea and dates and sweets, a subur party in the street
so get up out of bed!
Come and greet the day ahead!
Hear me beat my drum, as down your street I come.
The moon is falling, I am calling,
to wake you for the day that's on her way.
Get yourselves out of bed, before the night is gone,
to welcome a new day of Ramadan.

3-Nursery Rhymes for Muslim Children By Zeina Debs Khayat

Zeina Debs Khayat's lovely "Nursery Rhymes for Muslim Children" is a Joyful and compassionate Approach to we are introducing young Muslim children to their faith. Children will find the book to be both informative and interesting, as includes a series of rhymes that modify the conventional nursery rhyme structure to reflect Islamic values, beliefs and topics.

Zeina Debs Khayat's lovely "Nursery Rhymes for Muslim Children" a joyful and compassionate approach to introducing young Muslim children to their faith. Children will find the book to be both informative and interesting, as it includes a series of rhymes that modify the conventional nursery rhyme structure to reflect Islamic values, beliefs, and topics.

This book's ability to convey fundamental Islamic ideas in a way that young readers may understand and remember is one of its best features. The poems are colorful and rhythmic, covering a wide range of subjects like prayer, generosity, thankfulness, and the pillars of Islam. The book is more visually appealing and interesting for younger readers because of the charming graphics that go along with the catchy rhymes. Khayat's endeavor to incorporate Islamic teachings into the well-known nursery rhyme format provides a special tool for Muslim educators and parents who want to inculcate moral principles in their kids. The rhymes are ideal for bedtime stories or early childhood education because they are simple and quick to recite. Children can learn valuable religious lessons from the text's lighthearted style while still enjoying the rhyme scheme and cadence of classic nursery rhymes.

The five pillars of Islam

The five pillars of Islam
Do you know the five pillars,
Hee yah yah dee oh, of Islam our religion!
The first one is Shahada,
Hee yah yah dee oh, there is no God but Allah
The second one is prayer,
Hee yah yah dee oh, to pray five times a day
The third one is fasting,
Hee yah yah dee oh, to fast in Ramadan
The fourth one is charity,
Hee yah yah dee oh, to give to the needy
The fifth one is pilgrimage,
Hee yah yah dee oh, to go to the Ka'aba
These are the five pillars,
Hee yah yah dee oh, of Islam our religion.

4-Allah Made Everything

By Zain Bhikha

Everything Was Made by AllahThe Song Book

The popular children's song "Allah Made Everything" by well-known singer-songwriter Zain Bhikha is the basis for the songbook. Since its first release in 2015, the songalong with its viral videohas grown to become one of the most well-known Muslim children's anthems worldwide. After that, it came in the form of a book.

Allah made everything

Allah made everything
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
The earth and the blue sky
Hey little fish in the bottom of the ocean
Moving along in a really cool motion
Did you ever wonder where you came from?
Who is the Lord of all creation
The little fish said "That's my Lord"
The little fish said "That's my Lord"
The little fish said "That's my Lord"
"Allah the Creator of us all"
Hey little bird so way up high Light up the sky with your color design
Tell me who made you and I
Me to walk and you to fly
The little bird said "That's my Lord"

The little bird said "That's my Lord"

The little bird said "That's my Lord"

"Allah the Creator of us all"

الله أكبر

Our Creator

There's no one greater

Than Allah

So why do we stand tall

Too proud to recognize

What's right before our eyes

Signs from our Lord

Hey alligator laying so still

Who's your maker, by who's will

Do you crawl and do you swim

Who controls everything

The alligator said "That's my Lord"

The alligator said "That's my Lord"

The alligator said "That's my Lord"

"Allah the Creator of us all"

Hey king of the jungle, the mighty lion

Top of the food chain, no denying

But who is the one that you rely on

Life or death who is deciding

The Lion said "That's my Lord"

The Lion said "That's my Lord"

The Lion said "That's my Lord"

"Allah the Creator of us all"

الله أكبر

Our Creator

There's no one greater

Than Allah

So why do we stand tall
Too proud to recognize
What's right before our eyes
Signs from our Lord
Hey my brother, hey my sister
See yourself as self sustainer
But don't you see what will come later
We all return to the Creator
Then we'll say "That's my Lord"
Then we'll say "That's my Lord"
Then we'll say "That's my Lord"
"Oh Allah, forgive us all"
I travelled the world, north to the south
East to the west and there ain't no doubt Whoever I see, whatever I've found
I can hear them sing out loud
الحمد لله praise my Lord
الحمد لله praise my Lord
الحمد لله praise my Lord
Allah the Creator of us all الله اكبر
Our Creator
There's no one greater
Than Allah
So why do we stand tall
Too proud to recognize
What's right before our eyes
Signs from our Lord
'Cause Allah made everything
Allah made everything
Allah made everything

You and I
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
The earth and the blue sky
Do we remember him
Thank him for everything
Surrender to only Him
With all our lives
'Cause Allah made everything
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
you and I
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
Allah made everything
The earth and the blue sky
But do we remember him
Thank him for everything
Surrender to only Him
With all our lives Allah.

5-Muslim Child

By Rukhsana Khan

Rukhsana Khan is a Muslim writer from Canada who wrote about Afghanistan in "The Roses in My Carpets" in 1998 and is currently working to teach children about Islam and the daily lives of Muslim children worldwide in order to foster more understanding and tolerance.

Muslim Child depicts elements of Muslim children's daily existence in a number of countries, such as Pakistan, Nigeria, the United States and Canada. The use of a child's perspective greatly enhances the possibility that readers who are not Muslims will be able to absorb and comprehend the protagonist's feelings and thoughts, even if they are not familiar with the religious foundation of those feelings and thoughts. While Rukhsan Khan aims to educate non-Muslim kids about Islam, American Muslim kids who are eager to read stories featuring relatable characters might be the book's most ardent readers.

Muslim Child

Muslim Child

Child of Peace

Child of War

From a far-off distant shore

What do your black eyes see?

My eyes are not only black

Sometimes they are blue as the sky

Or green as the tropical sea

Or brown as the trunk of a palm tree

And every shade in between.

My skin can be black as molasses

Or pink as the blush on a rose

As golden as freshly made honey

Or dark copper brown as a penny

And every shade in between.

I am the richest of the rich

And the poorest of the poor

As famous as famous can be

A generals child, pampered and bored

A soldiers child, orphaned by war
And every rank in between.
I come from many countries
Speaking many languages
But with one set of beliefs.
I believe in Noah and Jesus and Abraham
Muhammad and Moses and in God who sent them
And in every messenger in between.
(God bless them)
So then,
Muslim Child
Child of Peace
What do your black eyes see?
I see that were each a piece in
The puzzle of humanity;
Ill try to understand you if
You try to understand me.

Poem!

Read in the warmth of someones lap,
Or as a family affair,
These gentle rhymes will soothe your heart,
Whilst making you aware,
Of your Lord, with names so beautiful,
You should learn them with care,
So you love Him, know Him, ask of Him,
And you bloom with every prayer.
Keep connecting with Allah.
Always and everywhere,
In the different seasons of your life,
Know with certainty, Hes there.

This book was published by the Islamic Foundation on 1996 and consist of 48 pages.

Poem!

I have much reason to rejoice,
And praise Allah in a grateful voice,
Because Im happy and content,
With all the favours Allah sent.
He created me so perfectly,
And did it all so lovingly,
While showing me the way to go,
No wonder that I love Him so.
Therefore to Him I bow and pray,
And try to obey Him everyday
How this big earth came to be,
And everything that we see,
Even things in outer space,
Came about by Allahs Grace
Read it up in your Quran,
1It will strengthen your Iman.
How people lived so long ago,

Lessons that we have to know,
And who does Allah love the best,
And why He puts us all to test
Read it up in your Quran,
It will strengthen your Iman.

Moin-ud-Din Ibn Asad Khan is a trained educationist based in the UK. He obtained formal permission to teach after completing his studies with eminent scholars in traditional Islamic sciences in Aqeeda, Fiqh, Hadith, Tafsir and other fields.

He is the creator and CEO of a higher education institution focusing on 'Alimiya' in addition to recognized credentials. He completed a Leadership Foundation degree in "Health and Social Care" and is active with Muslim youth and the community. You set up an archery and horseback riding club in East London.

You received martial arts training from Indonesian and Malaysian instructors and his serving as an instructor in the club. Apart from being an educator, he is also a very good writer and poet. The specialty is that in all of them you have arranged the biography and Hadiths of the Prophet (PBUH) in English.

Literary work of Moin-ud-Din Khan

Here we will highlight a few books containing the poetic biography of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

1-Eating like the Prophet (PBUH)

"Eating Like the Prophet" (PBUH ) by Moin-ud-Din is a rhyming book for children. Moin-ud-Din has written about eating habits of the Prophet (PBUH) in the light of hadiths and sunnah in a poetic style with detail. This book was published by Idea Press on 17 September 2014 with 40 pages. indeed Nabi Kreem's (PBUH) eating habits were simple and were full of gratitude for Allah. His approach to food was moderate, reflecting his extensive teachings on balance and self-control. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to eat with his right hand and always began his meal by saying "Bismillah" (invoking the name of Allah). Allah was recognized as the source of all sustenance. He taught to eat food with gratitude and wonder. Acknowledging that food is a blessing from Allah, he forbids wasting it. He used to eat simple food. His meals were usually of the modest Arabic tradition. He often ate with great gusto simple foods like dates, barley, and milk, which were common in his time. Among the vegetables, pumpkin was your preferred food; apart from meat, fruits were eaten with passion. He always ate without making a sound.

He advised to eat only in the state of hunger and to stop before filling his stomach, saying that the son of man does not fill a vessel worse than his stomach; it is enough for the son of man to keep his back straight. He filled it then with one-third for food, one-third for drink, and one-third for air." It also acts as a guide for his followers to keep. The Prophet (PBUH) was also known for sharing his food with others, especially the poor and destitute. He also often ate in the company of his companions and encouraged eating together, saying that it was more blessed to eat that way. His approach to food was not just about physical sustenance but also about fostering community, gratitude, and humility.

Moreover, he ate slowly, chewing his food thoroughly, which is now considered beneficial for digestion. In summary, the Prophet's eating and drinking habits included moderation, gratitude and deep awareness of the blessings bestowed by Allah. His practice was to inspire millions of people around the world to eat with gratitude.

2-Sleeping like the Prophet (PBUH)

The sleeping habits of the Prophet (PBUH) were a reflection of his balanced and disciplined lifestyle. He emphasized the importance of rest after hard work. This book is published by Idea Press on 4 November 2014, with 40 pages.

The Prophet (PBUH) usually went to sleep early after the night prayer (Isha) and woke up early for the Fajr prayer before Fajr for Tahajjud prayer. This routine of going to bed early and getting up early was in line with his teachings about living a balanced and healthy life. He advised his followers to avoid staying up unnecessarily late, as it could disturb their sleep and affect their daily duties and ability to perform worship.

Before going to sleep, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to perform ablution; similarly, ablution was performed before prayer. This practice was a way to maintain physical cleanliness and spiritual purity before going to sleep. He also encouraged reciting specific prayers and verses of the Qur'an, such as Ayat al-Kursi and the last two verses of Surah Al-Baqarah recitation at night, etc.

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to sleep on his right side with his right hand under his cheek. He used a simple mattress or a bed made of palm fiber, which showed their humility and detachment from worldly comforts. His approach to sleep was not only about physical rest but also about maintaining a strong connection with Allah even in moments of rest.

He got up at midnight for voluntary prayer (Tahajjud). It was a practice he greatly valued and encouraged others to do. This dua of the night is considered to be effective for deep meditation and to get close to Allah. The Prophet also emphasized the importance of taking a short nap (qailullah) during the day, usually in the afternoon, to refresh oneself. This practice is known to have many health benefits. And it is consistent with the concept of balance in Islam.

Prophet Muhammad's sleeping habits were a combination of physical relaxation, spiritual mindfulness and discipline. His practices serve as a guide to living a life that balances worldly duties with spiritual responsibilities even in moments of relaxation.

3-Walking like the Prophet (PBUH)

Moin –ud-din has written about your walking habits in the light of Hadiths and sunnah in a poetic style with detail. Walking like the Prophet (PBUH) is related to the rhyming series just like the Prophet. It was published by Idea Press on December 1, 2015, with 40 pages.

A unique and beautiful way of walking of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has been described in several Hadiths. Your demeanor was purposeful, dignified, and full of humility. When the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) walked, he used to lean forward a little. You walked with a steady pace that was neither too fast nor too slow, but you had a balanced gait, and you took your steps carefully, avoiding dragging your heels.

Those who observed them remarked that it seemed as if they were descending from a height, moving swiftly and efficiently. Despite the fast pace, his walk never seemed hurried or chaotic. This balance in his approach mirrors his broader outlook on life, where he maintains a harmonious balance between the various aspects, always highlighting a deep sense of purpose. The Prophet's Walk was also a reflection of his humility. Despite his important position, he never showed arrogance or pride. Your colleagues noted that you often walked alongside others, never ahead of them. You always showed respect and equality.

In short, the Prophet's way of walking is a symbol of his prophetic mission—marked by strength, purpose, humility and encouragement to walk steadfastly on the path of righteousness. It was a physical manifestation of his spiritual and moral journey, inspiring those around him to follow in his footsteps.

4-Speaking like the Prophet (PBUH)

Speaking like the prophet (PBUH) By Moin-ud-Din is a rhyming book for children. This book was published in 1 October 2019, and it consists of 40 pages.

The Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) was known for speaking in a soft and understanding tone. He never spoke excessively nor spoke loudly, and he never used vulgar or offensive language to point out the mistakes of a person, but always took a position of gentleness and understanding and explained with love. Muhammad's speech was characterized by profound wisdom and eloquence. He never talked unnecessarily. The Prophet (PBUH) always spoke in a tone that was cool and sweet to his Ummah. His speech was understandable to all people because his speech was simple and easy to understand. The Prophet used to repeat the talk three times so that people could understand it easily. He was known for his truthfulness and honesty. He always said what Allah told him through revelation. Since his words were always supported by his perfect character and actions, they carried weighty arguments. During a conversation, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) paid close attention to the person to whom he was speaking. In this way, the addressees felt valued. This created an atmosphere of mutual respect and understanding. His style of speaking reflected his wider preaching of Islam. He spread the message of Islam with wisdom, compassion and unwavering truth. This book of Moin-ud-Din contains the speaking habits of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

5-Celebrating Like the Prophet (PBUH)

The fifth book in the children's book series "Just Like the Prophet" is titled "Celebrating Like the Prophet ?." These books use innovative, engaging, pleasant and rhyming language to educate young children about the Sunnah practices of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) in a style that is easy to remember. They provide a detailed look into Prophet's (PBUH) life and elegant ways, enabling both adults and young children to recognize, emulate and cherish the finest aspects of creation. The release date of this book is July 12, 2020.

6-Life of Muhammad (PBUH) the sublime

The life of Muhammad (PBUH), the sublime is one of Moin-u-ddin Khan's other books. This book consists of 108 pages and was published in 2020.

A succinct and lyrically rhymed biography of the Prophet (PBUH). This book recounts the well-known events in the life of the Prophet in chronological order.

Even though it is brief and straightforward. This biography does a fair job of presenting the events in the Messenger of Allah's life in chronological order (PBUH). All ages, including adults, children and scholars, can readily read, acquire, and impart knowledge about the life of Allah's messenger (PBUH) to others. In these narrations, he has mentioned all Ghazwah of Prophet Muhammd (PBUH) with great detail.

Here I mentioned some poems from this book.

i-IBRAHIM'S PRAYER

Inspired by Allah; Ibrahim travelled to Arabia with his son and spouse.

He said "O our Lord, I leave my offspring next to your sacred house.

Our Lord, I leave them in a valley that is barren and bare.

Our Lord, make them of those who establish prayer.

Incline people's hearts towards them to treat them with care.

Our Lord, fulfil their needs and provide them with fruits.

So that they may be of those who show gratitude. 1

Our Lord, make us into people who turn to you in submission.

And grant from our offspring a submissive nation. 2

Our Lord, send to them a messenger from amongst them.

Who will recite your verses, teach them your book and wisdom.

And one who will be a means for their purification." 3

Allah accepted this prayer of his and took Ibrahim as a friend.

And from his progeny through Ismail was to come the best of all men.

ii-BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD

His father Abdullah was of Bani Hashim, a clan from the Quraishi tribe.

His father passed away whilst his mother Amina was just a new bride.<sup>8</sup>

From his first moment into this world, he started life as an orphan.

He was to be sent to live with the bedouins as was the Arab custom.

Halima came to the city to take an infant as she was a wet nurse.

The wet nurses were eager to get to the rich families first.

From this orphan, she felt she would not get her efforts worth."<sup>9</sup>

But taking the baby home brought unexpected blessings into her household.

No sooner as she placed him onto her lap, her milk started to overflow.

He stayed with her family in the desert until the age of four.

One day Muhammad was outside with other children at play.

Two angels came and made him lay, they opened up his chest and washed his heart in a tray. <sup>10</sup>

They removed a dark clot that causes sin, and left him looking pale and grey.

Muhammad was quickly returned to stay at his mother's side.

After two years, suddenly Amina fell ill on a journey and in her illness she died.

He was taken under the care of his grandfather, to whom he was very dear.

His sadness was great at the death of his grandfather after staying there for two years.

10- 123 Sahih Muslim, book book of faith)

iii-PRE-PROPHETHOOD

The people of Makkah decided to rebuild the Kabah as it was damaged due to flood.

Everyone was able to contribute but only pure money would enter the fund. <sup>14</sup>

A dispute arose on placing back the blackstone, one would not allow the other leading to a grudge.

They decided that the next person to walk in through the gates would be the judge.

When Muhammad walked in they said, "It is Al Amin! He is a person who everyone trusts."

He advised the blackstone be placed on a cloth, each corner for every leader to clutch.

He pushed the blackstone into place himself, using wisdom to prevent the shedding of blood. <sup>15</sup>

Muhammad had a reputation as an honest man and all would treat him with respect.

And he would join pacts like 'hilm al fudhul' to help the weak who were being oppressed. <sup>16</sup>

As he approached the age of forty, Muhammad constantly felt an internal unrest.

He would ponder over the state of the people and had thoughts he could not express.

He would see dreams clear as daylight, in his mind the vision remained fresh.

Unable to explain to anyone he would seek solitude to reflect.

iv-THE BATTLE OF BADR

The Quraish seized all the Muslim's property, their families in Makkah had no rights.

Two years after Hijra, Allah gave the believers permission to defend their properties and lives.

"Permission to fight has been given to those who are oppressed and expelled from their homes."<sup>39</sup>

The Prophet wanted to raid a Quraishi caravan as a warning to leave the Muslims alone.

The Makkans assembled an army of over 1000 strong, as the Muslim plan became known.

The Prophet sought the Ansar's counsel, they said "Fight! We will not leave you on your own."<sup>40</sup>

The Quraish came to the battlefield and challenged three Muslims to a duelling war.

Ali, Hamza and Ubaidah faced them to the duel and all three were victors.

The battle started with the Muslims outnumbered against a much larger force.

Inspired by their Prophet, 313 believers fought equipped with spears and swords.

Allah reinforced them with angels descending in succession led by Jibreel on his horse.<sup>41</sup>

They fought with courage whilst the pagans fled the field after facing a heavy loss.

Thus Allah caused the truth to prevail and conquer over that which was false.

(39-Al Haj, verses 39-40 Al Quran

40-Ibn Hisham, vol. 1 page 458

41-Al Anfal, verse 8, Al Quran)

Look this couplet from the battle of Uhad!

v-THE BATTLE OF UHUD:

The Makkans were humiliated at Badr and now they sought revenge.

They rallied their allies and neighbouring tribes to gather over 3000 men.

The Prophet wanted to remain in the city so that all could take part in defence.

Muslims who missed Badr were eager to go and face the enemies seeking honour.

The Prophet accepted and came out prepared wearing two layers of armour.

On the way to battle 300 of the cavalry abandoned the army showing their true colours.

With only 700 soldiers, the Prophet appointed a small hill to be used to host 50 archers.

He ordered, “Stay in your positions even if our bodies are being eaten by vultures.”<sup>42</sup>

The battle raged on with the Muslims outnumbered by four times the troops.

Many sahabas were martyred and the Prophet was wounded and lost a tooth.<sup>43</sup>

The believers fought valiantly causing some pagans to flee with Muslims in pursuit.

Thinking the Muslims had won, most of the archers moved to gather the loot.

Khalid ibn Walid noticed this and attacked the Muslims from behind using an alternative route.

The believers were surrounded so they climbed up mount

Uhud to escape.

The pagans were unable to reach them but any dead they found they would mutilate.

The Muslims declared, “Our dead are in paradise, for your dead a torment awaits.”

i-Allah Almighty's Attributes

Allah is One; Allah is One,

He begot none; nor was begotten.

He is Independent in His decree,

None should be worshipped but He.

Before Him only, bows every Muslim,
None is to be equated with Him.
He is Himself alive and sustains others,
Him, guarding the heavens & earth not bothers.
The heavens & earth, contained in His throne,
To Him, all before or behind, is well known.
Before Him, who can intercede on the occasion
Of intercession save by His own permission.
He is the Most Exalted and the Greatest,
We all seek His mercy in trial and test.

ii-Fragrant Breath of the Breeze

Holier are the lanes
That kissed his feet.
Sacred is the place
Where he (PBUH) rests in peace.
Fragrant is the breeze
That touches his dome.
Blessed are the people
Who live in his city.
Honour earns the servants
In his service and audience.
Glory wins the bald
This brings his benediction.

By Pro, Abdul Majid Hameed

Pro, Abdul Majid Hameed is a poet and a teacher by profession. He claims to have written the world's first Naat book, but he did not know that Muslims and non-Muslims have worked on Naat for centuries. His poetry is deeply connected to Islamic spirituality and often includes references to hadiths (sayings of the Prophet). His unique style combines simplicity with devotion.

i-How could I forbid him, in this way?

Woman said, O, Prophet here is my son,
He eats sugar loaf much and often,
Prophet advised her, to come next day,
Disclose I shall, a very good way,
Next day, she came with much pleasure,
So much so, I can not measure,
Prophet advised the boy, eat not sugar loaf,
Advice is over, now go off
She said, why did not you advise the same,
Last day when I came,
Prophet said, sugar loaf, I ate that day,
How could I forbid him, in this way,

ii-Be appreciative to such a great Mustafa

Prophets, Apostles Came,
Shining Cool-flame,
I have poured

Now rest assured,
None is Mustafa,
Except Muhammad Mustafa
From Him, guidance, we get,
In a fix, we are yet,!
At this what a regret,
I feel a fret
O, Man, be appreciative to such a great mustafa,
Our factual and paradise mate Mustafa.

iii-At the imagination of Muhammad

As I think about Hell fire,
In perplexity, temperature goes higher,
Makes me, ponder over my attribution,
Tears role down, for my ablution,
At the imagination, Prophet Muhammad,
At the imagination, Prophet Muhammad,
I lose myself, it is true,
I get purgation, Pure is view,
Unknown secrets come to me,
Desires my all, seem bloomy,
At the imagination of Muhammad,
At the imagination of Muhammad,
Tolerant, Courageous, enduring all,
Suffered long and kind with all
At the imagination of Muhammad,
At the imagination of Muhammad,
As I find myself, at His door,
I myself bow, low, from my core,
At the' imagination of Muhammad,

At the' imagination of Muhammad,
Let us move to Madina, set life routines,
For green future, there, precious means
At the imagination of Muhammad,
At the imagination of Muhammad,
On seeing my sins, I feel anon
The City of Muhammad, I might have gone
At the imagination of Muhammad,
At the imagination of Muhammad,
(Besides this,some of the Naats he has written are nice, and some are very substandard. He has written words like this, and he says!
Tin Tun Tun, Allah is one,
Tin Tun Tun, Allah is one,
He has no, daughter or son,
I always say, Allah is one,
I think it is inappropriate to use such words like "Tin Tun Tun" in a hymn (Hamd).)

By Elizabeth Lymer

Elizabeth Lymer is a converted Muslim rhymer. She married Aziem Chawdhary, and they live in the UK.

Islamic Nursery Rhymes is a lovely collection of nursery rhymes for young children to learn about the beautiful ways of Islam in a beautiful singing experience with their parents and elders. The poems in the book are traditional nursery rhymes with timeless Islamic meanings.

Poem!

The Muslims Round The World
Oh, the Muslims round the world,

We pray five times a day;
We stand; we bow, prostrate, and kneel,
And we turn our heads each way.
And when we stand we are up,
And when we prostrate we are down,
And when we bow we're halfway up -
That's neither up nor down.

ALLAH'S HOUSE

The house of Allah is wide and bright.
The house of Allah is a good sight.
The house of Allah is open to all.
The house of Allah is a place to offer one's prayer.
So one can pray without no threat nor fear.
The house of Allah is sacred for his Ummah.
The house of Allah, shelters his Ummah from shaitaan.
So, Ummah, Hold on tight onto the house of Allah.
So shaitaan cannot create mischief and take you astray.
The house of Allah,
Is here to stay.

AZAAN

Oh! my friends, hear, the azaan is calling us,
So stop all your play and come to pray,
Remember our Allah, so come to pray,
Gather all your friends and whisper to them,
Our Lord is calling,
So let us hasten for our salaah,
Oh! my friends, the azaan is calling us.

Poetry for the young hearts.
By Dr Asmaa Rabea

Dr. Asmaa Rabea is a teacher by profession. She is working to increase Islamic values for kids and she runs an online school by the name of "Sahlah Academy".

i-Islamic poems about Allah for kids:
i-Allah's Love

In the sky so blue, and the stars above,
Feel Allah's mercy, His endless love.
He listens to prayers, both big and small,
With Him by our side, we stand tall.
When you feel alone, or in despair,
Remember Allah is always there.
Through ups and downs, in joy and tears,
Trust in Him, and calm your fears.

ii-Allah's Wonders

In the vastness of the sky, so high and blue,
Every cloud whispers secrets, old and true.
Mountains stand tall, with peaks that gleam,
Reflecting Allah's power, like a beautiful dream.
The flowers bloom in gardens bright,
Colors dancing in the warm sunlight.
Each petals design, so intricate, so fine,
A reminder of Allah's artistry, divine.

The rivers flow, with a gentle grace,
Carving paths through time and space.
Their waters sing praises, in a soothing tune,
Reflecting Allahs mercy, beneath the moon.
Every creature, big and small,
Echoes Allahs name, answering the call.
In their lives, His wisdom shows,
Guiding them through highs and lows.
So, look around and see the signs,
In every moment, Allahs love shines.
With grateful hearts, lets learn and pray,
For His blessings, every single day.

iii-Allah's Mercy

When the world feels heavy, and troubles grow,
Remember Allahs mercy, in its endless flow.
He hears your whispers, your hopes, your fears,
In every prayer, Hes always near.
The sun rises each day, with golden light,
Chasing away the darkness of night.
In this cycle, so perfect and grand,
We see Allahs wisdom, guiding His hand.
The rain that falls, nourishing the earth,
Bringing forth life, and endless rebirth.
In every drop, His mercy we find,
A testament of love, so gentle, so kind.
The stars at night, in a sky so vast,
Stories of old, from ages past.
Each one a reminder, shining bright,
Of Allahs promise, His guiding light.

So, when you feel lost, or a little small,
Remember, with Allah, youre never alone at all.
In His embrace, find peace and grace,
For His love is boundless, filling every space.

iv-Allah's Creation

In the morning light, the sky so blue,
Allahs artistry comes into view.
Mountains high and rivers deep,
In every corner, His secrets keep.
The whispering breeze in the trees so tall,
Birds that chirp, creatures big and small.
Stars that twinkle in the midnight hue,
Each one a sign from Him so true.
From the oceans vast to the desert sand,
In every grain, I see His hand.
Allahs creations, so vast and grand,
Guide us gently, like a loving hand.
So let us marvel, let us see,
The wonders of His Majesty.
In every leaf and every tree,
Allahs beauty, for all to see.
May this poem inspire and educate,
About Allahs love, so intricate.
In every moment, in every place,
His creations, a divine embrace.

ii-Islamic Poems about Prophet Muhammad(PBUH) for Kids

i-The Compassionate Guide

In the land of Arabia, long ago,
A light emerged, with a gentle glow.
Prophet Muhammad, the chosen one,
Guided by Allah, like the shining sun.
With compassion deep in his noble heart,
He taught us love, right from the start.
Kindness to neighbors, the poor, and weak,
In every action, his words would speak.
When troubles came, he stood so strong,
With patience and faith, he'd right the wrong.
An example to follow, pure and bright,
In his teachings, we find the light.

ii-A Mercy to All Worlds

In Meccas sands, a child was born,
Whose life would change a world forlorn.
Muhammad, a mercy to all the lands,
With wisdom and love, he took a stand.
His honesty shone like a guiding star,
From near and far, they knew who you are.
Al-Amin, the trusted, in every way,
His actions and words, a guiding ray.
In every story, lesson, and deed,

The love for his Ummah, he did indeed.
With open hearts, we learn and strive,
To follow his path, to truly thrive.
These poems offer more detailed insights into the life and virtues of Prophet Muhammad, engaging children with stories of his compassion, honesty, and guidance.

iii-Islamic Kids Poems about Islamic Manners

i-Kindness (Adab al-Ihsan)

In verses that teach kindness,
In the world so wide, with people to meet,
Spread kindness around, make life sweet.
A gentle smile, a helping hand,
Can turn a stranger into a friend.
The Prophet taught us, in his gentle way,
To share our love every single day.
Through acts of kindness, big or small,
We lift each other, and stand tall.
Remember the joy of giving with grace,
It lights up the world, a brighter place.
So let kindness flow, like a river wide,
With open hearts, love will abide.

ii-Honesty (Adab al-Sidq)

Poetry on honesty might go,
Truth in words, truth in play,

Honesty guides us, come what may.
In promises kept and tales true,
Honesty shines in all we do.

iii-Generosity (Adab al-Sakhawat)

And a poem about generosity,
Give with a heart open wide,
Sharing blessings, side by side.
From sharing food to giving time,
Generosity blooms, so sublime.

iv-Patience Like the Prophet

When things go wrong, dont feel dismay,
Patience like the Prophet, show us the way.
In trials and troubles, he stood so firm,
His heart steadfast, a lesson to learn.
With faith so strong, and a soul so bright,
He found calm in the darkest night.
In Allahs wisdom, he placed his trust,
Knowing His plans are fair and just.
So when you face a stormy day,
Remember to kneel, and softly pray.
With patience and faith, we rise above,
Guided by the Prophets enduring love.

v-Gratitude Every Day

Count your blessings, one by one,
For every star, and the shining sun.

The gentle breeze, the flowers that bloom,
In nature's beauty, there's always room.
Thank Allah for the food we share,
For family, friends, and love that's rare.
Each moment precious, each day a gift,
In grateful hearts, our spirits lift.
So let us say Alhamdulillah,
For all we have, near and far.
With gratitude shining in all we do,
We'll find contentment, pure and true.

iv-Islamic Kids Poems about The Quran

i-The Light of Guidance

In the quiet of the night, by the soft glow of a lamp,
I sit with my Quran, like a treasure in my hands, so damp.
Its pages whisper stories of prophets brave and true,
Guiding me with wisdom in everything I do.
From Adam's creation to Noah's mighty ark,
Each tale unfolds gently, leaving an everlasting mark.
I learn of Abraham's faith, so unwavering and strong,
And Moses, who led his people, right where they belong.
The Quran is my companion, in moments big and small,
It teaches me patience, to stand tall and never fall.
With every verse I recite, I feel my heart aglow,
For Allah's words are soothing, like a gentle river's flow.
So, let me hold this Quran close, as I journey through my days,
Its light will lead me forward, in so many wonderful ways.
For in its timeless verses, I find peace and grace,
A gift from Allah's mercy, in every single place.

ii-The Garden of Knowledge

In the garden of knowledge, where Quranic verses bloom,
I wander with wonder, amidst its fragrant perfume.
Each verse is like a flower, colorful and bright,
Teaching me about Allahs love, in the mornings early light.
Surah Al-Fatiha, the opening so grand,
It whispers Allahs mercy, across the golden sand.
Surah Al-Baqarah, with its stories vast and wide,
Guiding me through lifes journey, with every ebb and tide.
I learn of the Prophets, from Adam to Muhammad (peace be upon them all),
Their struggles and triumphs, their names I proudly call.
The Quran is my treasure, a guidebook for my soul,
It fills my heart with joy, making me feel whole.
So, let me cherish this Quran, as I grow each passing day,
Its teachings are my compass, showing me the righteous way.
For in its sacred verses, I find peace and light,
A beacon of hope, forever shining bright.

v-Islamic Kids Poems about Paradise

The Garden of Paradise

In the land where rivers flow,
Where the gardens of Paradise grow,
Lies a place so pure and grand,
Created by Allahs loving hand.
In Paradise, the skies are blue,
With hues of gold and sparkling dew.

The air is sweet with fragrant blooms,
And peace abounds in endless rooms.
Underneath the shades of trees,
Where fruits hang low and sway with ease,
Children play and laugh in glee,
Their hearts are light, their spirits free.
In Paradise, the rivers flow,
With waters clear like mornings glow.
They shimmer bright with silver light,
Reflecting Allahs grace so bright.
Angels sing with voices clear,
In Paradise, theres naught to fear.
For Allahs love surrounds each soul,
In this blessed, eternal goal.
Oh, Paradise, so pure and fair,
Where joy and beauty fill the air.
We pray to reach your gates one day,
And in Allahs mercy, forever stay.

Introduction of other books of rhymes.

meaning, which has been written to create deep love and respect for the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, in the heart and mind of the reader.

2-Five Minute Bedtime Stories and Rhymes for Muslim Babies.

By Ummu Laylaa

"5 Minute Bedtime Stories and Rhymes for Muslim Babies" is the perfect addition to your toddler's nighttime routine. This collection includes charming stories and delightful poems that will transport your child into a world of wonder and imagination, all written to instill Islamic values and teachings.

3-Clear the Path

By Hosai Mujadadi

A Book of Rhymes on Etiquette for Young Muslims. This book is authored by Hosai Mujadadi and published by Prolance.

An essential part of every Muslim household and Islamic school classroom is teaching children proper manners. Clear the Way: A Book of Rhymes on Etiquette for Young Muslims is a fun and simple collection of poems with colorful and relevant illustrations to help parents and teachers teach their children and students the basics of Islamic etiquette in private and public settings. Provides support.

Inspired by the author's nearly forty authentic Ahadith (traditions), all of which are included in the references section. This book not only provides practical lessons in Islamic etiquette but is also a valuable source of essential Ahadith, what every Muslim should know.

4-Muslim Nursery Rhymes

By Islamic Foundation

Muslim Nursery Rhymes, published by the Islamic Foundation in 1981, is a delightful collection of rhymes that introduce young children to Islamic values in an engaging and playful way. Designed for early learners, this book uses simple, rhythmic language to teach essential teachings such as kindness, gratitude, prayer and cleanliness. All the poems are written to be both entertaining and educational, making them memorable and enjoyable for young minds. This timeless resource serves as a valuable tool for parents and educators to instill moral and spiritual lessons in children, instilling a love for Islamic principles from an early age.

5-Islamic Nursery Rhymes Book -1

6-Islamic Nursery Rhymes Book-2

By Rehana E-Essa

A great alternative for modern Muslim parents to read and sing to their children.

It is recommended for babies under six months of age, as it teaches them to recognize the name of Allah (SWT) as well as His majesty, beauty, and oneness through song and play. Therefore, children learn to constantly remember Allah while walking, running, and playing instead of playing useless songs that have no importance in their Muslim life. These books will teach your child to know and recognize the infinite favors and rewards of Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala and instill in love of the creator in their heart. In Shah Allah.

7-Poems of the Prophets

By K S Malik

The exquisitely written "Poems of the Prophets" will allow you to explore the rich realm of Islamic history and legend. The purpose of this captivating poetry collection is to uplift, instruct and promote a comprehension of the teachings, life lessons and teachings of the Islamic prophets.

8-50 Poems

By Usman Khan

(About Prophet Muhammad's Family And Companions)

The Prophet Muhammad's family and companions are the subjects of fifty poems. Beautiful poems and brief biographies of Prophet Muhammad's (peace be upon him) cherished relatives and companions may be found in this book. You will be moved by the experiences and qualities of these extraordinary people as they are told through sincere and heartfelt poetry.
